with innovative financing

Make your healthcare better

When healthcare financing is done right, it can make your healthcare better. By enabling you to invest in new technologies and digital workflows that maintain continuity of care in a shifting healthcare landscape. And easily acquire technology solutions to address acute challenges.

Philips has recently achieved major innovations in months instead of years, transforming the healthcare perspective. Now is the time to confidently move your healthcare forward. Philips Capital's finance experts support you in bringing your care vision to life.

Healthtech Leases

Right-to-Use equipment

Keep quality high and costs low by financing the entire Philips Solution with a variety of payment plans designed to fit your budget

Extended Payment Plans

Own equipment

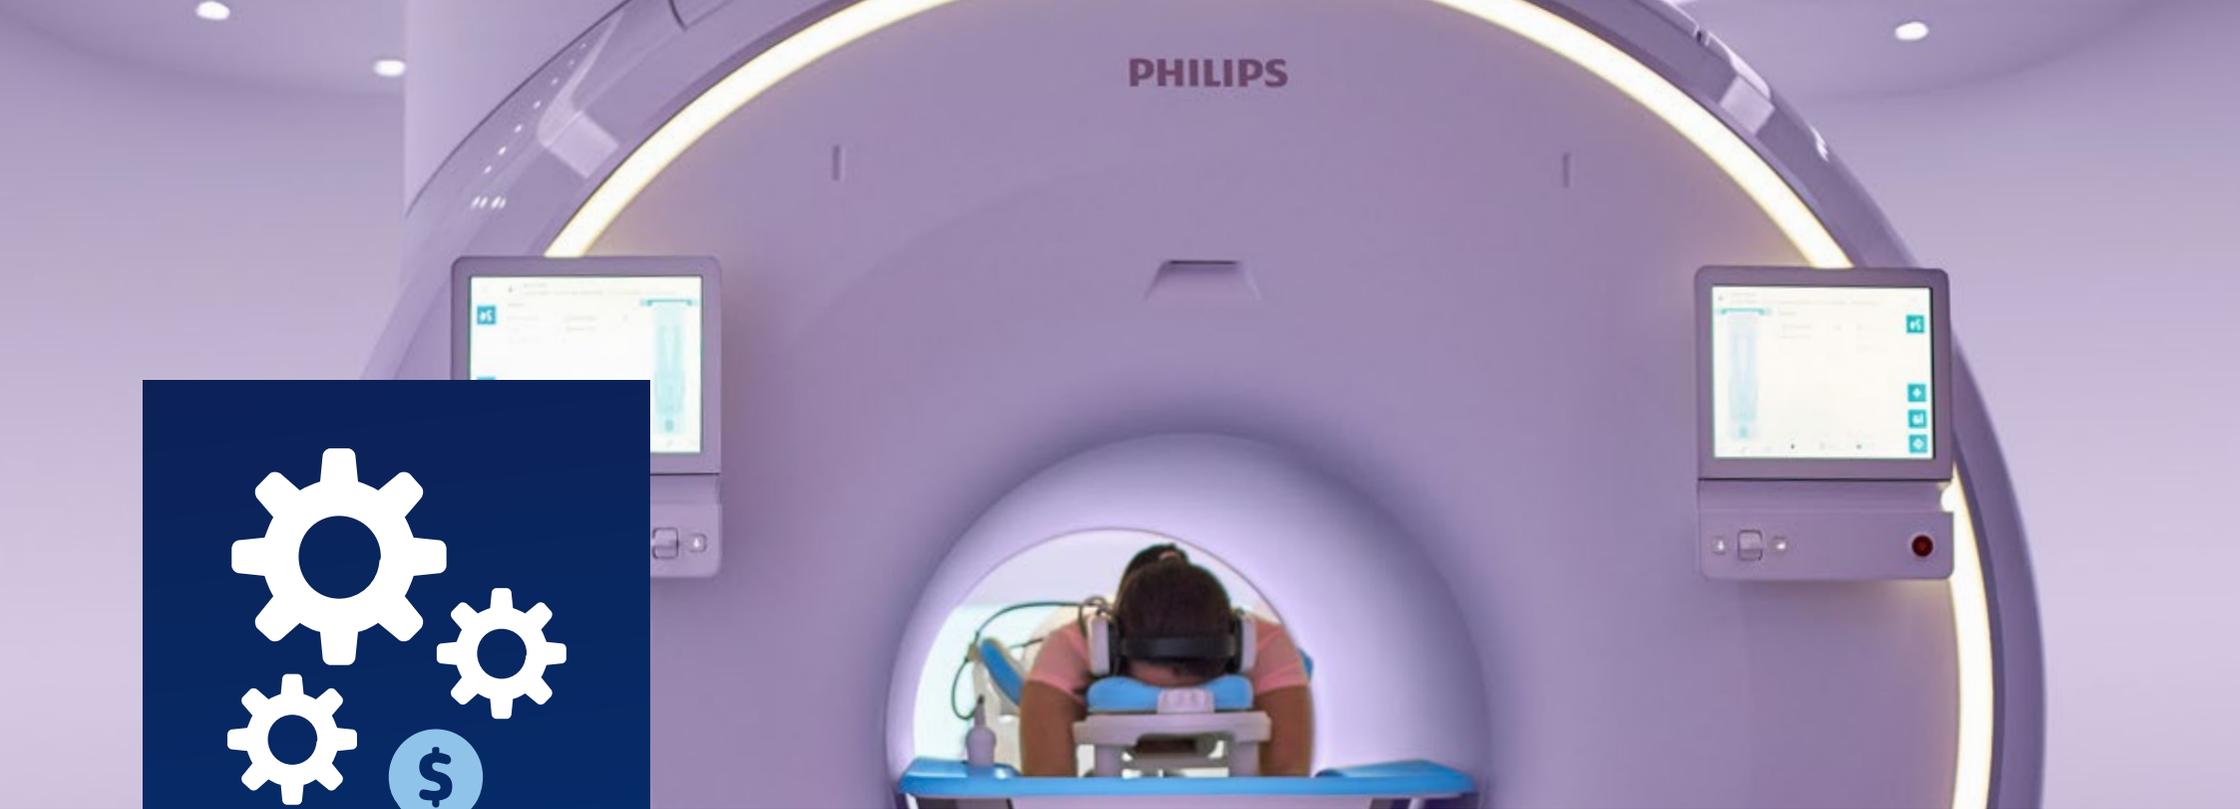

Acquire Philips Healthcare technology now and pay back over time with flexible payment plans tailored to fit your financial goals

Deferral Payment Programs*

Financing payment structure

Access Philips Healthtech today, without making payments for a pre-defined period of several months

Improve cashflow

Access the latest medical technology and IT solutions now to build up your cashflows with financial options that meet your capital constraints and protect your cash reserves.

How to step up to the latest Philips technology and improve your cashflows?

Fixed and stepped up payments

Switch your next MR solution from a CAPEX to an OPEX investment with payments matched to your cashflows.

Purchase your MR now and pay later using revenue generated from your new MR to pay later.

Finance an upgrade to your existing MR that increases your throughput and cashflows by renewing your current financing contract.

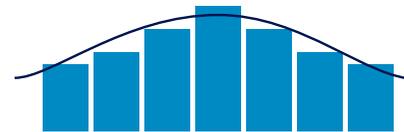

Optimize Total Cost of Ownership (TCO)

Bring repayments in line with patient revenues to fund the latest telehealth solutions and digital technologies that improve healthcare performance and open new revenue streams.

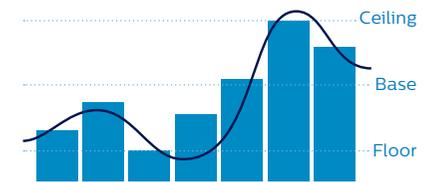

How to implement a cost-wise telehealth solution for radiology?

Bundle equipment, services and IT solutions into one contract and one easy payment to simplify cost management.

Make stepped payments to match your phased deployment schedule.

Share risk with Philips Capital's pay-per-use options, making a portion of your repayments based on the actual usage of your telehealth services.

Be flexible

Leverage fast, simple and flexible financing processes to obtain essential medical technology and IT solutions and address changing patient and market dynamics.

How to easily acquire new technology and IT solutions when funding is limited?

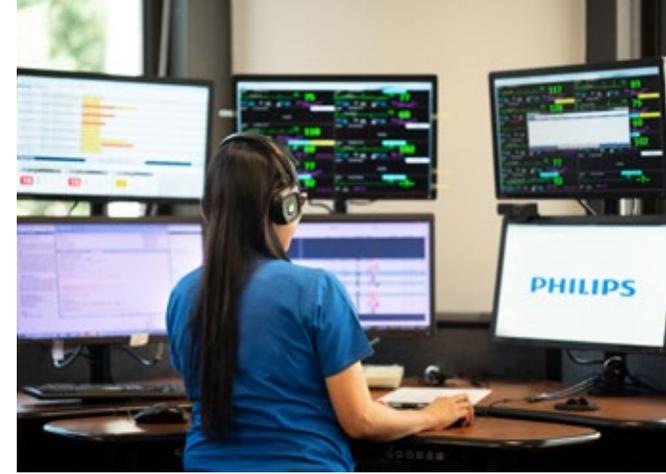

Acquire the latest technology for less with flexible and deferral payment plans tailored to fit your financial goals.

Streamline management and acquisition of new equipment with Managed Technology Services.

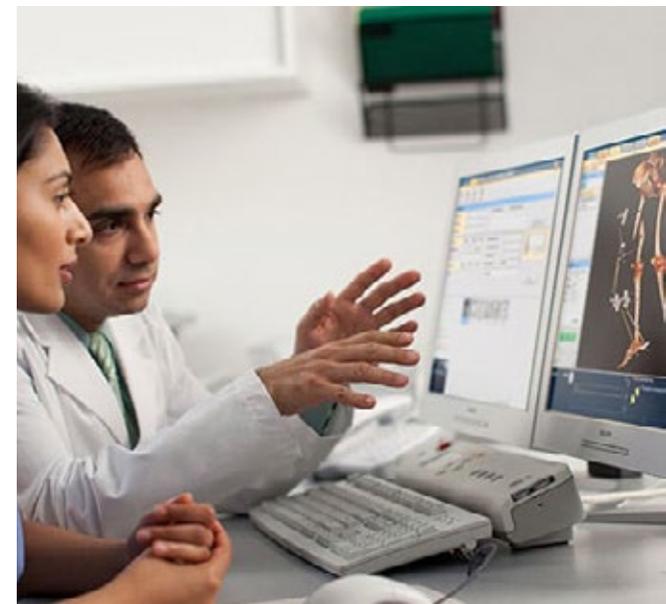

At the end of your current financing contract, simply extend your lease to replace, upgrade or add on to your existing systems.
