What Personal Data are collected; Why are these Personal Data collected? With whom are Personal Data shared?; How long will the Personal Data be kept?

Original source of the data: University of Washington, Seattle, USA.

What	Why	Whom	How long
De-identified CT localizer images (2D projection image used for planning purposes prior to the diagnostic CT scan).	See purpose and legal basis of the processing	Philips	Periodic review, every 5 years Max 20 years
Binary label indicating the presence of a pneumothorax	See purpose and legal basis of the processing	Philips	Periodic review, every 5 years. Max 20 years

Periodic review: Philips will delete your data after a certain time, unless a clear reason exists why the data is still useful and relevant. Then again a periodic review cycle starts.

It has been determined that the re-identification risk for the data in this study is very low.

Results may be published without disclosing your identity.

What is the purpose and legal basis of the processing?

Insofar as we have a legitimate interest, we may process your data for the following purposes:

- To conduct scientific research related to the initiative, namely: Research on pathology detection using CT localizer scans. The data will be used to train and validate Deep Learning techniques for pathology detection (i.e. pneumothorax), and the localization of relevant anatomical regions (the lung);
- To aggregate and/or anonymize Personal Data, so that it will no longer be considered Personal Data. We can do so to generate other data for our use, which we may use and disclose for any purpose;
- For fraud and security monitoring purposes, for example, to detect and prevent cyberattacks or attempts to commit identity theft;

- To enforce our terms and conditions and to protect our rights, privacy, safety or property of our affiliates, you or others.

To comply with legal obligations Philips may process or disclose your data for the following purposes:

- For audits, to verify that our internal processes function as intended and are compliant with legal, regulatory or contractual requirements;
- To comply with applicable law - this can include laws outside of your country of residence;
- To respond to requests from public and government authorities, these can include authorities outside your country of residence;
- To cooperate with law enforcement, for example law enforcement requests and orders;
- We may also process or disclose your data to protect your or someone else's vital interests.

With whom do we share your Personal Data?

We may disclose your Personal Data:

- To the parties specific to the initiative you take part in, as set out on page 1;
- Our affiliates or subsidiaries for the purposes in this privacy notice. Affiliates all process data under the same set of Binding Corporate Rules (www.philips.com/privacy);
- To our third party service providers who provide services such as website hosting, data analysis, payment processing, order fulfilment, information technology and related infrastructure provision, customer service, email delivery, auditing and other services.

Security

We seek to use reasonable organizational, technical and administrative measures to protect personal data within our organization. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with us is no longer secure, please immediately notify us in accordance with the “How can you contact us?” section below.

What are your rights?

If you would like to:

- Ask questions about how we handle personal data;
- Request to review, correct, update, suppress or restrict the use of your personal data;
- Request that your personal data be removed;
- Withdraw your consent (Only possible if the processing is based on your consent. It will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on your consent before the withdrawal);
- Object to our use of your personal data for our legitimate business interests;
- Request to receive an electronic copy of your personal data for purposes of transmitting it to another company (to the extent this right to data portability is provided to you by applicable law), please contact us via the details provided under the “How can you contact us?” section below. We will respond to your request consistent with applicable law.

Please note that we need to retain certain information for recordkeeping purposes (e.g., there could be legal obligations to retain certain information, if so, you are not be able to change or delete the personal data provided until after the retention period in that respect has passed).

Updates to this Privacy Notice

We may change this privacy notice. The “Last update” legend at the top of this privacy notice indicates when it was last revised. Any changes will become effective when the revised privacy notice is made available (online if it was already online, otherwise mail or email). If the change to this privacy notice is indicative of a fundamental change to the nature of the processing (e.g. enlargement of the categories of recipients or introduction of transfers to third countries) or a change that may be relevant to and impact upon you, then we will inform you in advance of the change taking effect in an explicit and effective way.
