

Privacy Notice “Therapy Guidance and Treatment for EP”

This Privacy Notice applies to the Personal Data processed in connection with the project “Therapy Guidance and Treatment for EP” (the “Initiative”).

Last update: October 19, 2020

Who is the data controller?

Centro Nacional de Investigaciones Cardiovasculares Carlos III (“CNIC”)
Melchor Fernández Almagro, 3, 28029, Madrid, Spain

and

Philips Electronics Nederland B.V. (“PEN BV”)
High Tech Campus 34, 5656 AE, Eindhoven, The Netherlands

and

Philips GmbH Innovative Technologies (“P Research Hamburg”)
Research Laboratories Hamburg, Röntgenstrasse 24-26, D-22335 Hamburg, Germany

References in this Privacy Notice to “Philips” are deemed to be references to both PEN BV and P Research Hamburg acting individually as between themselves and CNIC in relation to the Processing of Personal Data.

If you have any questions about this Privacy Notice or about the way we use your personal data, please contact the Data Protection Officer of CNIC in the first instance at dpo@cnic.es or Philips through our contact form. (www.philips.com/contactprivacy)

What Personal Data are collected?; Why are these Personal Data collected? With whom are Personal Data shared?; How long will the Personal Data be kept?

The data is originally collected in the “VF-3D-BRISA” study and “Modelado ventricular en 3 dimensiones basado en la determinación de Fibrosis mediante resonancia magnética nuclear e incorporación funcional como guía para la ablación de la taquicardia ventricular con sustrato” study. This Privacy Notice informs you about sharing the following information with Philips.

What	Why	Whom	How long
Age at the time of study inclusion, gender and cardiologic medical history.	To train and test image processing algorithms. To develop a semi-automatized modeling workflow.	CNIC (original data collector).	Retention period determined by local regulations.

Periodic review: Philips will delete your data after a certain time, unless a clear reason exists why the data is still useful and relevant. Then again a periodic review cycle starts.

To protect your privacy, all directly identifying data (example: name, medical record number, contact details) will be separated from the research data (such as measurement data) and replaced by a participant code by CNIC. On all study-specific documents, other than the signed consent form, you will be referred to by a participant code, not by name. Philips will only receive the research data.

Your participation in and any information you provide in relation to this initiative is confidential. Records identifying you will be kept confidential to the extent allowed by the law.

In addition to the information above, the following people might have access to records directly identifying you:

- Individuals performing the study;
- Individuals who have a business need to access your Personal Data, such as the personnel tasked with storing the signature forms.

Results may be published without disclosing your identity.

What is the purpose and legal basis of the processing?

Insofar as we have a legitimate interest, we may process your data for the following purposes:

- To conduct scientific research related to the initiative:
 - To train segmentation algorithms of cardiac structures and scar from MRI;
 - To develop a semi-automatized personalized computational electrophysiology modeling workflow;
- To aggregate and/or anonymize Personal Data, so that it will no longer be considered Personal Data. We can do so to generate other data for our use, which we may use and disclose for any purpose;
- For fraud and security monitoring purposes, for example, to detect and prevent cyberattacks or attempts to commit identity theft;
- To enforce our terms and conditions and to protect our rights, privacy, safety or property of our affiliates, you or others.

To comply with legal obligations Philips may process or disclose your data for the following purposes:

- For audits, to verify that our internal processes function as intended and are compliant with legal, regulatory or contractual requirements;
- To comply with applicable law - this can include laws outside of your country of residence;
- To respond to requests from public and government authorities, these can include authorities outside your country of residence;
- To cooperate with law enforcement, for example law enforcement requests and orders;
- We may also process or disclose your data to protect your or someone else's vital interests.

With whom do we share your Personal Data?

We may disclose your Personal Data:

- To the parties specific to the initiative you take part in, as set out on page 1;
- Our affiliates or subsidiaries for the purposes in this privacy notice. Affiliates all process data under the same set of Binding Corporate Rules (www.philips.com/privacy);
- To our third party service providers who provide services such as website hosting, data analysis, payment processing, order fulfilment, information technology and related infrastructure provision, customer service, email delivery, auditing and other services.

Security

We seek to use reasonable organizational, technical and administrative measures to protect personal data within our organization. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with us is no longer secure, please immediately notify us in accordance with the “How can you contact us?” section below.

What are your rights?

If you would like to:

- Ask questions about how we handle personal data;
- Request to review, correct, update, suppress or restrict the use of your personal data;
- Request that your personal data be removed;
- Withdraw your consent (Only possible if the processing is based on your consent. It will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on your consent before the withdrawal);
- Object to our use of your personal data for our legitimate business interests;
- Request to receive an electronic copy of your personal data for purposes of transmitting it to another company (to the extent this right to data portability is provided to you by applicable law), please contact us via the details provided under the “How can you contact us?” section below. We will respond to your request consistent with applicable law.

In your request, please make clear what personal data you would like to have changed, whether you would like to have your personal data suppressed, or otherwise let us know what limitations you would like to put on our use of your personal data. For your protection, we only implement requests with respect to the personal data associated with the particular email address that you use to send us your request, and we may need to verify your identity before implementing your request. We will try to comply with your request as soon as reasonably practicable.

Please note that we need to retain certain information for recordkeeping purposes (e.g., there could be legal obligations to retain certain information, if so, you are not be able to change or delete the personal data provided until after the retention period in that respect has passed).

Updates to this Privacy Notice

We may change this privacy notice. The “Last update” legend at the top of this privacy notice indicates when it was last revised. Any changes will become effective when the revised privacy notice is made available (online if it was already online, otherwise mail or email). If the change to this privacy notice is indicative of a fundamental change to the nature of the processing (e.g. enlargement of the categories of recipients or introduction of transfers to third countries) or a change that may be relevant to and impact upon you, then we will inform you in advance of the change taking effect in an explicit and effective way.

How can you contact us?
